ST. PAUL DEFEATS ACONI

For Supremacy Between Ontario and Quebec King Plate Winners.

Lord Shaughnessy Leases Flibbertygibbet and Wins Club Members' Race.

MONTREAL, Quebec, September 14.—To settle the supremacy between Ontario and Quebec, the respective winners of each provincial King's Plate, St. Paul and Aconi measured strides in the Breeders' Stakes at the Blue Bonnets track this afternoon. St. Paul was returned the winner over Aconi, Romanelli restraining St. Paul behind Aconi for the greater part of the mile and a half journey. When well in the stretch he shook him up and, taking the lead, won in easy fashion.

A race which held more importance to the local racegoing public was the running of the third. This was a dash of three-quarters for three-year-olds and over. The conditions were that the horses be either owned or leased by a member of the Montreal Jockey Club. The lessee voluntarily paid the owner fifty dollars for running in the race. Filbbertygibbet, which has been a consistent racer in these parts and was leased to Lord Shaughnessy, was the one to be returned victor. Venal Joy and St. Germain offered a spectacular battle for second place, with the former prevailing.

Lord Shaughnessy was escorted to the stewards' stand and Miss Martha Allan, a daughter of the president of The Jockey Club, presented the victor with a miniature cup. The race was the means of drawing the largest clubhouse attendance to the lawns of this meeting, prominent financial and social people witnessing the running.

The opening race of the day furnished a thrill to the crowd when Reconnaissance got the best of Fator and ran away a quarter of a mile. When the barrier was released she began quickly, and Heath Bell.

Racing conditions this afternoon were vastly improved over those of yesterday and a large crowd

Canada.

Jockey E. Fator, who has been riding in particularly good form at Blue Bonnets, will leave for Toronto tomorrow night to join the stable of his employer, Stuart Polk. Fator has won two stake races here and is at his best riding over a considerable distance of ground.

W. Fitzgerald has received word that stalls for his horses were not available at the Thorncliffe Park course, so has changed his plans and will send his string from here to Dorval Park.

Sheridan Clark, secretary of the Dorval Park Jockey Club, has announced that conditions of several of the races there would be changed to suit the horses which will race at the Dorval Park meeting.

FUTURITY WINNER IS WELL BRED; COST OWNER $6,600 AS YEARLING

Step Lightly, winner of the Futurity, was bre by Miss Elizabeth Daingerfield of Haylands Stuc Lexington, Ky., and Samuel Ross of Washington D. C. She was sold at the Saratoga sales of 191 to her present owner for $6,600, and her victor illustrates the fortune which frequently favors newcomer in racing. Tripping, the dam of St Lightly, is by Delhi, a son of Ben Brush, while he second dam is Fairy Slipper, by St. Serf, a so of St. Simon. It is the first winner of a grearace which has been bred by Miss Daingerfield in dividually, although she was her father's righ land when Major Daingerfield was manager for James R. Keene and sending champions yearl from the famous Castleton Stud.

PRINCE PALATINE FROM ENGLAND SOON

LONDON, England, September 14.—Mr. E. F. Simms' Prince Palatine, recently bought in France, and Mr. John Sanford's Nassovian, which has been in service here for some years, are to be shipped to New York in palatial quarters on the steamship Michigan, which leaves September 20.

CHANGES AT BELMONT PARK HAVRE FEATURE TO BLAZES CHAMPAGNE STAKES WINNER

Various Plans Discussed at Meeting Held Saturday-Will Cost from $300,000 to $500,000.

NEW YORK, N. Y., September 13.—A number of persons prominent in racing attended a meeting in the Turf and Field Club at noon Saturday at the invitation of President August Belmont of the Westchester Racing Association, and later on were his guests at luncheon.

The object of the meeting was to exhibit the various plans for the improvement of Belmont Park before the spring of 1921, and to obtain a liberal exchange of ideas on the subject from representative turfmen. Four plans were shown in detail, all of them designed to make Belmont Park what it should be—the finest race course in the United States. The advantages and disadvantages of each scheme were discussed and the cost of the work, which will run from $300,000 to $500,000, according to the plan selected, were gone into thoroughly in the presence of Architect Leavitt and Mr.—Terry, representing the construction firm of Terry & Tench, which will make the changes. The final plan will be formulated in the near future, and it is expected that the work will be begun shortly after the close of the present meeting.

The entire matter was discussed in a way which disclosed the fact that the Westchester Racing Association is not a close corporation, and that the management welcomes suggestions. Major Belmont explained the plans in detail, and gave an estimate of the seating capacities of the various stands, the most ambitious structure having a capacity of 17,000 persons.

Joseph E. Widener, who followed one of the plans submitted for consideration, spoke in its favor, after which there was a general discussion of the subject of the traces, and the best borse should win in the race around the turn, as the straight run from the bend to the finish will be in the aeighborhood of 1,200 feet, slightly in excess of that at Sacatega.

HORSES "DODGE" AT BELMONT PARK

The opening race of the day furnished a thrill to the crowd when Reconnaissance got the best of Fafor and ran away a quarter of a mile. When the barrier was released she began quickly, and displaying much speed, won from Greybourne and Heath Bell.

Racing conditions this afternoon were vastly improved over those of yesterday and a large crowd journeyed to the course. The steeplechase frante for maldens over the two-mile course resulted is a victory for Bencher, which took kindly to retch and drew away near the end to who in a canter. John Walters, trainer of the G. M. Hendrie stable, wired Harry Giddings, asking for second-call on Romanelli during the Woodbine Park meeting.

R. Willis, who has been riding for the Hendrie stable on the Canadian circuit, has returned to Kentucky.

TO FEATURE STEEFLECHASING.

It is said that several of the Canadian tracks will feature steeplechasing next year. It was only an few years back that every track in Canada as teeplechase course and this branch of the sport was highly popular with Canadian raceyors. Thomas Stevens has taken over Rave On and four other racers, which he is schooling through the field at the Mount Royal course.

When the Barrier of the Grace himself, where he is racing here to Woodbine Park on the stewards at Blue Bonnets, returned to Mary Land tonight, where he was called to look at the field at the Mount Royal course.

Joekey Joe Dreyer announced his intention of going direct to Havana from Detroit as the concidence of the meeting at Laurel, which immediately follows the less than the field at the Mount Royal course.

James Healy will ship the string of jumpers he is racing here to Woodbine Park on the field at the Mount Royal course.

RACING ASSOCIATIONS SUBSCRIBE COLLECTION FOR REMOUNT FUND

Frank J. Bryan, who was delegated to make the Maryland collections for the $10,000 remount fund to be distributed as premiums for government-bred foals, mares and stallions at various fairs, has reported that the Harford Association, which begins its meeting at Havre de Grace today, has contributed $1,000. A like amount has already been pledged by the Maryland Jockey Club and the Maryland State Fair Association at Laurel, so that Maryland has already pledged $3,000. With a like generosity from other associations throughout the osity from other associations throughout the Captures South Atlantic Handicap After Due with Blue Wrack-Motor Cop an Easy Victor.

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., September 14.—The South Atlantic Handicap, for three-year-olds at one mile, was the stellar attraction at the Harford County track today. Captain Ral Parr furnished the winner of it in his good colt Blazes. Only four started, Paul Jones and First Consul being withdrawn. The race was practically a duel between Blazes and Blue Wrack. The former quickly rushed to the front on the first turn, closely followed by the Cubah-owned colt. It was a royal battle throughout, and not until the final strides was Blazes able to draw into a clear lead. Clear and warm weather brought out a crowd of large proportions. The track was in fine condition and the racing of good quality.

The first two races of the afternoon were for two-year-olds, Sea Court, at long odds, accounting for the opener, while Serapis was returned the winner of the second.

It was Motor Cop all the way in the third, the Ross racer proving too speedy even for the fast band opposed to him.

A rousing, hard-fought finish marked the running of the fifth race, with Swirl, Padua and Martha Luckett crossing the wining line in the order mentioned only necks apart. Phedoden, the favorite, would have won but for racing wide in the stretch after holding a safe lead all the way.

A petition signed by thirty-four of the prominent horsemen racing here was posted in the secretary's office this morning asking the association for adoption of the Kentucky claiming rule and the abolition of all selling races at the meeting.

Three claims were lodged yesterday. N. S. Vall took War Winner out of the third race. Glen Well was claimed out of the same race by W. J. Riedel. The latter ran in the colors of W. R. Tolmie.

The apprentice rider H. Remmett, under contract to J. B. Dunn, was set down for five days by starter Milton for his behavior at the post.

Wednesday's purses include a claiming race surplus of $480 from Monday's races and $800 from a $2,000 purse advertised as the Federal Handicap, which was declared off.

The horses of F. A. Dayton have arrived from Windsor.
Title, Kallipolis and Franklin were put on the schooling list by starter Milton on the opening day of the meeting.

ST. AMANT, NOTABLE RACER, DEAD

LONDON, England, September 14.—The once famous race horse and fairly successful sire, St. Amant, by St. Frusquin—Lady Loverule, by Muncaster, split a pastern while at exercise in one of the paddocks at the Southcourt Stud, Leighton Buzzard, Bedfordshire, a day or two ago, and was destroyed. St. Amant was nineteen years old, and was a great three-year-old in 1904. In that year he won some $125,000 and the Epsom Derby, Two Thousand Guineas and Jockey Club Stakes. In the Jockey Club Stakes St. Amant gave Polymelus, a high-class race horse himself, twelve pounds more than weight-for-age, and beat him. St. Amant was only a moderate success as a sire, and lately had been standing at Southcourt at the moderate fee of $90. lately had been sta moderate fee of $90.

RESTRICTIONS FOR ARCENTINE BACING

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, September 14.—President Irigoyen's administration is considering projects for the limitation of racing. Buenos Aires has one of the finest race courses in the world (Palermo), operated by its famous Jockey Club, where millions of pesos change hands in a year under the pari-mutuel betting system.

Races are held twice a week, Thursdays and Sundays, and on the frequent holidays. The attendance is enormous. As a corollary to the mounting cost of living, the betting public has increased its wagers. Where total bets on a Sunday were formerly 800,000 pesos, they now sometimes aggregate 3,000,000 pesos.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

James Healy, who purchased four jumpers of William Garth last spring for James Lumsden and J. L. Murphy, has won eighteen races with them so far this year.

Templeman, the English jockey who rode Silvern in second place in the St. Leger Wednesday, is to train after this year for the Duke of West-minster and Lord Jersey.

Reports from Toronto are that stabling at that course is already at a premium, and some of the horsemen who had contemplated shipping there will instead go to Dorval Park.

Arrangements are being perfected for a big special horse train to leave Kenilworth at the conclusion of that meeting for Havana, Cuba. The matter is being looked after by Sidney Bender.

Grey Lag Takes the Race With Ease and in Fast Time.

Enfilade Runs Another Excellent Race Under Big Weight-Lord Brighton a Winner.

NEW YORK, N. Y., September 14.—The Champagne Stakes, at seven-eighths of a mile over the straight course, featured the program at Belmont Park this afternoon. Grey Lag ruled the choice. The Star Shoot colt's recent races warranted the respect shown him by the oralizers.

Banksia, G. A. Cochran's filly, was an added starter, with jockey W. Kelsay having the mount. Grey Lag scored easily from the five others, with Banksia second and Our Flag third. The time for the race was 1:24%, one-fifth of a second slower than Cleopatra won the race in last year. The Southampton Handicap for mares three years old and over brought seven to the post, with Alphee ruling a slight favorite over Enfilade at the close of operations. The later proved the winner and her performance stamps her as being right at the top of her form, as she was giving away substantial weight concessions to everything in the race. Enfilade followed Alphee close up to the stretch bend from where she came on to win easily. La Rablee, which had been practically left, ran a good race by closing a big gap and taking second place. Ballet Dancer II., a long shot, was third. Bellsolar and Lanetta were outrun all the way. Alphee quit unexpectedly and her race was too bad to be true.

Natural Bridge repeated his good performance of last Saturday when he defeated a fair band of platers in the second race at one mile and a sixteenth. Natural Bridge was saved to the stretch bend, where he came through next to the rail and, coming on with a rush, took the lead and won by two lengths. Mars Mouse, the favorite, was the early pacemaker, but he had nothing left to withstand the challenge of Paddy Dear in the stretch and had to be content with third place.

S. C. Hildreth's Lord Brighton, which failed the talent in his last race, made good in easy fashion in the Dunton Handicap, the opening dash of the day, but at short odds. Afternoon and Salvestra alternately set the pace until at the eighth post, where Lord Brighton came with a rush and won with ease. Salvestra was secon with ease. Salvestra was second, two lengths in advance of Afternoon. Royce Rools showed scant speed.

Jockey F. Coltileti came from Havre de Grace to ride yesterday. He had the mount on Arethusa in the third race and Broom Spun in the Champagne Stakes,

J. Simon Healy, who has accepted the position of trainer for the stable of Senor A. H. Diaz, was at Belmont Park yesterday. He leaves for Havre de Grace Thursday to take charge of the Cuban turfman's horses.

The stable of E. R. Bradley was shipped to Kentucky yesterday, where it will be campaigned during the fall racing season.

The Wickliffe stable, formerly owned by James Corrigan and Price McKinney, will get $1,000 out of the Futurity, won by Step Lightly, that amount being set aside for the breeder and nominator of the winner. Tripping, the dam of Step Lightly, was sold at the dispersal sale of the Wickliffe stable, held at Lexington in February, 1918, She was at the time of her sale in foal to Ultimus and Step Lightly was the produce. Miss Daingerfield and S. Ross of the Haylands stud, paid $2,400 for Tripping.

D'OKHUYSEN'S TURF HEROES

Great Horses Sent to the Races by the Deceased Figure in French Racing-Finasseur and Sardanapale His Best.

The death at Deauville, France, on August 15 of trainer James d'Okhuysen brings to a close the career of a man who, although comparatively younghe was only 52—had been a notable figure on the French turf for the past thirty years. It was with Finasseur that he became famous, that great horse winning in succession the Grand Prix du Jockey Club. the Grand Prix de Paris and the Prix du President de la Republique.

His subsequent successes were numerous. In 1907 he had a great year with Verdun and later with Faucheur, Ossian and Sardanapale, all owned by Baron Maurice de Rothschild. In that year Verdun won the Prix de Saint Cloud, the Prix Boiard, La Poulle d'Essai, the Grand Prix de Paris and the Prix du President de la Republique. Faucheur started out by winning the Grand Criterion, the Prix Lagrange and the Prix Hocquart, but his career was unfortunately interrupted at the commencement of his third year. Ossian, which improved as he grew older, like his grandsire, Le Sancy, placed to his credit the Prix du Conseil Municipal and the Prix du President de la Republique. The exploits of Sardannapale are recent history, among his successes being the Prix Lagrange, Prix du Jockey Club, Grand Prix de Paris, Prix du President de la Republique and the Prix Eugene Adam.

A patient, keen student of everything pertaining to the development of the thoroughbred, P'Okhuysen displayed during his long career the finest professional acumen and his premature death is a distinct loss to the French turf.

J. S. HEALY TO TRAIN FOR A. H. DIAZ

J. Simon Healy, recently resigned as trainer for Willis Sharpe Kilmer, has accepted a position as trainer for Senor A. H. Diaz, the Cuban sportsman, Healy succeeds William McDaniel, who has resigned his position with Senor Diaz. No trainer has yet been found for the Kilmer horses.

MAJOR BELMONT SEEKS AID FOREIGN STOCK IS COMING

Wants Horsemen to Name Committee in Order That Selling Races Will Be Better Filled in the Future.

NEW YORK, N. Y., September 11.—President August Belmont of the Westchester Racing Association, on his arrival at the course yesterday afternoon, expressed regret that some of the overnight races, particularly those with selling clauses, were not filling satisfactorily, and issued the following statement.

statement:

"The Westchester management, while realizing that not much can be done at this meeting to change the program, feels that a great deal is to be gained for its future guidance by securing the opinions and co-operation of owners and trainers in framing a policy for the future. It would welcome suggestions which will produce more liberal entries, especially for the selling races. During the first two days there was a shortage of horses due to the non-arrival of several stables from Saratoga, where there was an acute lack of cars. 1315-100 That condition does not exist any longer,

That condition does not exist any longer, and the management calls for frank expressions on the subject from horsemen.

"Quite apart from this, the association has asked the trainers quartered at the course to select a standing committee of three to serve from year to year to represent them and be at all times prepared to bring grievances, whatever may be their nature, to the attention of the officers."

MANTACHEFF'S BIG ESTABLISHMENT

Judging by the importance of the purchases made by Leon Mantacheff at Deauville, the stable which he proposes to establish in France will be formidable. In addition to seventeen foals which he has acquired for a total of 1,200,000 frances, he has the following six yearlings: Faustine, f, by Mon General—Fulda II.; Suzon, c, by Sunstar—Mira II.; White, c, by Sunstar—Alamouth: Priscus, c, by Picton—Caryna; Miss Star, f, by Sunstar—Miss Pintrie; and Cyanite, f, by Picton—Cyanine. Before the war, in 1912 and 1913, M. Mantacheff had already made some sensational purchases of youngsters at Newmarket. He had, too, a large establishment in Russia, but more than 200 of the animals there were killed or stolen by the Bolsheviks, and only eight were saved. M. Mantacheff's new establishment will have the same trainer as he employed in Russia, M. Wadomski, a Pole. The horses will be ridden by the Polish jockey, Bortnik, and R. Wallon, but for next year Mantacheff has engaged the American Jockey Winkfield, whose services he utilized in Russia.—London Sportsman.

DEATH OF BOOKMAKER PICKERSGILL

One of the big English bookmakers, J. Pickers-gill, a shining light in Tattersall's ring, died a few days ago at a ripe old age, leaving a large fortune, gathered by turf operations and general business. He was a "whale" as a commission fortune, gathered by turf operations and general business. He was a "whale" as a commission agent, and laid and backed horses to large sums. One of the biggest commissions he was intrusted with was that for the French colt, Durbar II., for the Derby of 1914. The return average was 20 to 1 against, After the commission was executed Durbar II. was beaten out of a place for the French Two Thousand, finishing only sixth to Listman. Pickersgill scouted the idea of attempting to hedge the money after the race and the horse, who belonged to the late Mr. H. B. Duryea, dropped back, starting at 20 to 1 against. He won easily by three lengths from Sir E. Cassel's Hapsburg, with Peter the Hermit third in a big field.

Great Stallion Negofol and Other Thoroughbreds Will Leave France September 19 on Steamer Royal Prince.

The steamer Royal Prince of the Furness Line, which is due to sail from Havre on September 19. will bring a distinguished collection of bloodstock to the port of New York for various American owners. The noted sire Negofol, which gave to the turf Hourless and other great performers, and which is consigned to Xalapa Farm, having been purchased by Edward F. Simms recently for a reported price of $150,000, is one of the collection.

Joseph E. Widener of Philadelphia has six splendidly bred mares which will join his others in Kendidy bred mares which will join his others in Kendidy bred mares which will join his others in Kendidy bred mares which will join his others in Kendidy bred mares which will be represented by three yearlings purchased by himself in the English market, and there will also be the $25,000 yearling filly by Prince Palatine—Frizette, by Hamburg, which was sold to an unknown customer a few mouths ago by the American jockey. Frankie O'Neill. It now transpires that the purchaser was the popular steel magnate, J. L. Replogle, who is O'Neill. It now transpires that the purchaser was the popular steel magnate, J. L. Replogle, who is an intimate friend of several of the most prominent men in racing. Mr. Replogle will be a welcome addition to the ranks of those business men who find recreation in their horses.

EXAMPLE IN LOW HORSE PRICES

What in the world are the horse folks of this country thinking of? Just imagine anyone having the temerity to enter so well-bred a filly as Playcary, winner of the second Belmont Park race on Friday, to be sold for $1,500. Of course, Playcany was run up, but only to $2,425, being sold to Mr. B. A. Lane, who indeed has secured a bargain, for she is certainly worth four times that amount for paddock use alone. What with yearlings selling in England for upward of $70,000.

Playcany is bred, as is the champion Man o' War, by Fair Play from a Rock Sand mare. Fair Play now stands easily first in the winning sire list and Rock Sand, sire of Tuscany, Playcany's dam, runs Meddler a close second for brood mare sire honors and Tuscany is from Toscana, sister to that great race mare La Tosca, dam of Chuctanunda and Caughnawaga, by the Derby winner St. Blaise, from Toucques, by Monarque.

Apparently it is a hopeless job to attempt to teach turfmen the value of blood lines, for here is a filly well bred enough in every respect to breed the winner of a Futurity, Realization, Epsom Derby, Grand Prix or an Ascot Gold Cup.

BREEDING BUREAU GETS TEN POINT: WILL BE LOCATED ON LONG ISLAND

NEW YORK, N. Y., September 14.—The breeding bureau of The Jockey Club has secured a valuable addition to its stallion list in Ten Point, a donated by Anthony Aste, who has already been generous in his gifts to this useful adjunct of the Jockey Club. Some years ago he gave Estimator, by King Hanover, and later on Eye Brow, by Star Shoot, and both have made good in the Genesee Valley, where their get is much prized. Ten Point is a son of the Sir Dixon sire Jack Point, and his dam is Gold Ten. Gold Ten is a daughter of Tenny. Ten Point is a superb big horse, standing seventeen hands high and weighing 1,400 pounds. Next to Wonder Boy he will be the largest stallion in the breeding bureau. He was a first-class race horse, especially as a three-year-old. Quite a few of his get have raced and some of his daughters have foaled good winners. He will be located on Long Island, in the neighborhood of Locust Valley.
